

Reliance Financial Limited

Fraud Advisory Notice

At Reliance Financial Limited, we are committed to safeguarding the interests of our customers and job seekers. We urge everyone to remain vigilant against fraudulent activities targeting unsuspecting individuals. Please review the following advisories carefully:

Loan Fraud Advisory

We have observed incidents where fraudsters impersonate Reliance representatives or create fake websites to deceive individuals during financial transactions. To ensure your safety, please follow these guidelines:

1. Verify authenticity: Confirm the legitimacy of all communications, including calls, emails, SMS, websites, or advertisements, before making payments or sharing personal information.
2. Exercise caution with links/attachments: Avoid opening links or attachments from unknown sources or third parties.
3. Protect your personal documents: Never share personal documents such as photo ID, address proof, or other sensitive information with unknown individuals or on suspicious websites.
4. Report suspicious activity: Report any fraudulent practices to your local police promptly.

Employment Fraud Advisory

Fraudsters have been circulating fake job offers using fictitious company names resembling Reliance, such as 'Reliance Groups Limited' or 'Reliance India Limited.' These scams often involve fake emails or phone calls soliciting job applications. Please keep in mind:

1. Authenticate job offers: Always verify the authenticity of any job offer by contacting the official human resources department of the concerned Reliance entity. Visit the official website for accurate contact details.
2. Stay alert for suspicious requests: Fraudsters may ask for payments or personal information under the guise of job applications. Be cautious and avoid engaging with such entities.
3. Report incidents: If you encounter such fraudulent activities, report them immediately to your local police.

Recruitment Process at Reliance Financial Limited

At Reliance Financial Limited, we follow a merit-based selection process to ensure fair opportunities for all candidates. As part of this process:

1. Nominal application fee: A refundable application fee of Rs. 100 is charged during the selection process. This measure is in place to discourage fake applications.
2. Transparency: The application fee will be refunded, and we communicate this policy clearly to all candidates.
3. We strongly advise job seekers to verify all job-related communications and reach out to us through official channels for clarification.
4. By remaining vigilant, you can protect yourself from fraudulent practices. Thank you for your cooperation in maintaining a safe and trustworthy environment for all.
